Saturday, March 10, 2012

Greencroft Community Center

1820 Greencroft Boulevard

Goshen, Indiana 46528

Social Time 5:00 PM – Dinner 5:30 PM

Please join your fellow Master Gardeners for an enjoyable evening of food, awards and fun. Our speaker is Tracy Di Sabato-Aust, author of a book most of us have in our libraries: The Well-Tended Perennial Garden. Her new book, 50 High-Impact, Low-Care Plants, is the basis for the evening's presentation. Each Master Gardener in good standing (2012 dues paid by Dec. 31, 2011) will enjoy the dinner and evening program free of charge. Guests and spouses are most welcome and tickets for them are $17 per person. Reservations must be made as soon as possible and no reservations will be accepted after February 22, 2012. This date allows only the membership meeting in January to make reservations in person.

Even though the meal and program are free of charge, the form below MUST be completed and returned ASAP for an accurate count. Please include a check in the amount of $17 per guest made out to MMGA and mail to:

Linda Harkleroad
8022 E. Cherokee Road
Syracuse, IN 46567

OR email your reservation (with no guests) to lindaharkleroad@gmail.com. Be certain to indicate your meal selection.

If you have questions, call Linda at 574-457-3214

Reservations may also be made at the January membership meeting. Mail order and email reservations will be acknowledged via email with dinner tickets to be picked up at the door on March 10th. Tickets will NOT be mailed.
